

POLITICS ARE ALL SETTLED

New Jersey Politicians Say That Taft Will Carry The Mosquito State.

GIVE HIM LARGE MAJORITY TODAY

Democratic Leaders Make Weak Claim For Ten Thousand Plurality For Bryan—Summary Of The Situation Given Below.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 28.—Former Gov. Franklin Murphy, chairman of the state republican committee, claims New Jersey for Taft by 50,000. Some other republicans are a little more enthusiastic than Murphy. Governor Fort says the Taft plurality will be 75,000.

James H. Nugent, the chairman of the state democratic committee, puts New Jersey in the doubtful column. There is no reason to doubt, according to Nugent, that this state will not go for Bryan by a plurality approximating 10,000.

These predictions represent the views of the leaders on both sides, less than a week before election. Not much can happen between now and the election, and the republican organization that sought his political life, Col. William W. Taft, is a strong contender for the possible outcome in this county on election day is that more than 40,000 votes were cast for the republican candidates at the primaries. Not only was this true of the senatorial aspirants, but for opposing candidates for assembly nominations also. It might be contended that this was brought about from the fact that democrats participated in the republican primaries. But there were equal hot contests in the democratic primaries, an organization and an anti-organization ticket. Yet only 20,000 votes were cast in the democratic column. Therefore, there is good reason

November 3 to give either cause to change their minds.

William H. Taft came to New Jersey on the morning of Monday, October 12. He spoke to great crowds in Newark, Elizabeth, Trenton, and was listened to by audiences relatively as large in the smaller cities and towns.

But Bryan came into the state the following Friday, and was heard by throngs just as great. If anything, there was more enthusiasm, but it is characteristic of the Jersey democrats that they can create more of a demonstration than their opponents. There is a reason for this. The candidates generally make the larger cities their chief stopping places, and as a rule the New Jersey larger cities have democratic rulers and strong democratic organizations. However, these local organizations are in getting up a demonstration everywhere is aware. Besides the people here seem to find something in the Bryan temperament to make them get out and hurrah for him now, as they always did. Their votes for him on election day were never commensurate with their cheers before election. There is no doubt that Bryan is liked in New Jersey. But many who like him do not heed him. The smaller cities are strongly republican in this state.

Roosevelt won New Jersey by 80,000. One year ago the best that Governor Fort could do was to carry it for the republicans by 8,000. Fort was a strong candidate. His opponent, Katzenbach, was also strong and unusually popular man. Katzenbach was known as an anti-Bryanite, one of those who had strayed away in 1896 and 1900. He is today supporting the Nationalist.

Taft will not carry the state by anything like the Roosevelt figures. At least there is no indication on the surface that he will. There are two populous counties in the state, the result of which will go a long way toward deciding the issue, if they do not actually do so. In Essex county, containing the city of Newark, and in Hudson county, containing Jersey City, there are 140,000 voters, about 70,000 in each.

Everett Colby, whose name is synonymous with reform principles all over the United States, is the republican candidate for the state senate in Essex. To win the nomination at the primaries Colby had to fight a strong son to believe that Essex will be for Taft. The republican leaders claim it by 15,000.

In Hudson, however, there is said to be a Bryan wave. It is rock ribbed democratic. It gave Parker a plurality over Roosevelt of 1,338. Jersey City, directly across the river from New York, is much influenced by the political sentiment in the great metropolis. Hudson is sure for Bryan. Mr. Hudson says it will give him 20,000 plurality. It will be strange, however, if Hudson does go so strongly democratic, since it gave but 7,000 last November for the democratic gubernatorial candidate, who was believed to be especially pleasing to the voters of that county.

If Essex and Hudson offset each other, which will be found very nearly the true solution, the fight lies in the rest of the state. The most of the other counties have a class of population that is afraid of Bryan. Bryanism is a bugaboo with them except in the three farming counties, which vote democratic year in and year out. Roosevelt or no Roosevelt, Bryan or no Bryan, there are 21 counties in the state.

The ethics of northern New Jersey are just now the centers of an onslaught against Bryan that is remarkably energetic and virile. There is no apathy. True there are no large mass meetings, but there are countless ward gatherings every night where an especial effort is made to have the workmen present. The city of Elizabeth is the home of the Singer Manufacturing company, which almost controls the sewing machine output in the United States. It employs 10,000 men. Here is a sample of the argument that is being drilled into the ears of these workmen every night of the week and on Sunday afternoons:

"What do you think of Bryan's plan to limit the output of any corporation to 50 per cent of the total product? What effect would that have on the Singer company, which makes nearly all the sewing machines used in the United States? It would curtail its business, wouldn't it? And it would put many of you workmen out of your jobs."

So much has been made of this particular argument that it became noted about the Singer company officials were asking a hand in the fight and coercing their men into voting for Bryan.

Uncle Sam—They are certainly burning up the track as they come in on the home stretch.

ENDED HIS LIFE IN A DRAMATIC MANNER

Robert Wills Found Dead in Bed
With Revolver Lying Beside Him.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., Oct. 28.—Robert Wills, a former resident in the northwest part of Shirland township, six miles west of Beloit, was found dead in his bed by neighbors, who had missed him since last Friday. A bullet hole in his head and a revolver in his right hand caused the theory of suicide. Later a note was found in which he stated that he was sick and miserable and was going to end it all, which proved the theory. An inquest was held under the direction of the coroner, Marsh, and the decision of the jury was that he had not his death at his own hands. The deceased was well known and highly respected in the country and his funeral will be well attended. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at his home in Shirland.

The Rock County Medical Society held its monthly meeting in Beloit last evening. Papers were read by Dr. J. W. Evans of Evansville, by Dr. W. A. Munro, of Janesville, and by Dr. Harry Worthington of Beloit.

Wilfred Douglas Cox, prohibition candidate for governor, was in the city for a short time this morning. He was accompanied by his secretary, Willis M. Cork. He left this noon for Union Grove where he will hold a meeting. Mr. Cox stated that there would be twice as many prohibition votes this year as there were last year. Mr. Cork is a character singer and he will assist Mr. Cox in the meeting.

CHAMP CLARK TO BE MINORITY LEADER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—When the second session of the Sixtieth Congress convenes in December, regardless of whether the republicans or the democrats have carried the House, there will be at least one change of regime that will be interesting and, perhaps, important. John Sharp Williams of Mississippi will no longer be the minority leader. In his place, unless all signs are misleading, will be Representative Champ Clark of Missouri. Mr. Williams, whom the people of Mississippi have chosen to be senator, announced some time ago that he had concluded to give up the minority leadership, regardless of what might be the result of the approaching election. Up to the present time, nothing has developed to indicate that Champ Clark would have any opposition for the succession.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF BOSTON DIOCESE

Foundation of Catholic Diocese of Boston Occurred 100 Years Ago.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., Oct. 28.—A solemn pontifical mass of thanksgiving was celebrated in the Cathedral of the Holy Name this morning in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Roman Catholic diocese of Boston. A number of bishops and other prominent prelates occupied seats in the sanctuary during the mass. Mr. Dionisio Paleolo, the apostolic delegate to the United States, was the celebrant. The sermon was preached by Archbishop O'Connell.

The big cathedral was crowded when the services began. The procession to the cathedral was impressive. Several hundred priests of the Boston diocese led and were followed by several hundred visiting priests and members of various religious orders. The bishops, archbishops, and Mr. Paleolo brought up the rear.

The celebration of the centennial is to continue five days. It will conclude Sunday with a great parade of the Catholic societies of Boston and vicinity. In the intervening days there will be a succession of religious services and historical exercises.

The century just closed has been an epoch of marvelous growth and sustained prosperity for the Catholic church in this section. When the diocese was created in 1808, with the Rev. John Cheever as the first bishop, it embraced New Hampshire and Vermont, Massachusetts, and including the district of Maine, Rhode Island and Connecticut. In the whole diocese there were but three churches, with a total of 729 communicants.

So rapidly did the Catholic population grow throughout New England during the past century that there are now seven large and important dioceses in the territory which was but one diocese in 1808. Now the diocese of Boston numbers 24 churches, and the Catholic population has increased to 850,000. In the diocese there are 60 priests and 1600 members of different orders of nuns.

CHINA WILL WELCOME BIG AMERICAN FLEET AT AMOY

$600,000 To Be Appropriated For Expense Of Receiving And Entertaining
Visitors.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Amoy, Oct. 28.—The arrangements for the reception of the American fleet for the entertainment of the officers and men of the visiting warships now on their way to this port from Japan, are practically completed and Amoy looks like a different city compared to what it was a month ago. The Chinese government was anxious to give to the American visitors a royal welcome and was therefore considerably embarrassed when Amoy was selected as the port of arrival. Amoy has a good harbor and is a large trading port opposite the Isle of Formosa, but the city itself is typically Chinese and entirely unprovided with the accommodations and comforts required by Western visitors, especially for any large number of them coming at the same time.

The Imperial Government and the Provincial authorities appropriated $600,000, or about $600,000 to defray the expenses of receiving and entertaining the American fleet and a considerable part of that sum had to be used to put Amoy in a proper condition for the reception of the Americans. A landing pier had to be constructed, the streets thoroughly cleaned and repaired, public and other buildings decorated and an illuminated road led out from the sea to the parade grounds and many of the temples and theatres renovated. The police force of Amoy had to be increased and hundreds of waiters imported from Shanghai and Hong-Kong to wait on the American officers and men at the numerous banquets to be given in their honor. The municipality of Amoy refused to go to any extra expense to honor the nation's guests. Recognizing the importance of making a showing of the Imperial Government and its means but gave Dr. George Mark, the Chinese Commissioner on Arrangements carte blanche in making the preparations for the great event.

Notwithstanding the comparative inaccessibility of Amoy and its unavailability to such a purpose, the most elaborate arrangements have been made for welcoming and entertaining the American visitors. Upon the arrival of the American fleet will be met by a squadron of Chinese warships and escorted to the anchorage, where the fleet will be formally received by Prince Puan, representing the royal family, the Viceroy of Fukien, the governor of the province, the admiral and commander in chief of the land forces, the Taotai of Amoy and other high officials.

Everything is practically ready for the advent of the visitors. The whole city is handsomely decorated and along the new road bamboo have been planted, which will be hung with Chinese lanterns every evening during the presence of the Americans. The officers of the American ships will be entertained by the high officials and in their honor numerous banquets after Western fashion, with American dishes and American drinks will be given. The men of the fleet will be separately entertained and provisions have been made to feed three thousand of them at one time. The importation of provisions sufficient for this large number of guests has been a matter of considerable worry and anxiety to the Chinese officials, but all difficulties were at last overcome, though at a large cost.

Everything will be free to the visitors and during their sojourn in Amoy the city will keep open house for them. There will be feasts with fireworks and juggling performances, continuous performances in all the theatres, to which the visiting Americans will be admitted free of charge. Excursions will be arranged to the ancient temples near the city and to the various points of interest in and around the town. As a special compliment to the honored guests baseball and rowing events have been planned, for which valuable prizes have been provided. The principal prizes will be two silver cups, each of which valued at $2,500.

Never has there been so much life and bustle in Amoy as at present. The population has been greatly increased by the arrival of the many hundreds of waiters, actors, jugglers, acrobatic performers and helpers and by the thousands of Chinese visitors, who have come here from all parts of the province to witness the festivities in honor of the Americans. The native and foreign newspapers of China have their correspondents here, ready to report to their papers the events of the festive week. Many American residents from various parts of China and Korea have arrived here to meet their countrymen and help to make things as pleasant as possible for them during their visit to the flowery kingdom. It is expected that the visitors will be greatly impressed with the magnificent scale of the hospitality shown by China on this memorable occasion. It will be the greatest event in the history of Amoy, where no such large aggregation of Americans has ever been seen before.

Andrew Olson Case

When the case against Andrew Olson, charged with selling liquor without a license at Afton, came up this afternoon, Attorneys William Smith and Edward Lynn, counsel for the plaintiff, made a motion to have the case dismissed on the ground that the search warrant was invalid. They maintained that Judge Elphick's name appeared in typewriting followed by the words "per A. C. Thieme, clerk" and that there was not vested in the clerk the right to make out a warrant in the judge's name. Exception was also taken to the fact that the officer serving the instrument was not definitely instructed as to just what intoxicating liquors he was to find on the premises. The motion was overruled about 3:30 and a plea of not guilty was thereupon entered for the defendant. It was expected that a jury of six to try the action would be drawn before nightfall. District Attorney Fisher and G. A. Oestreich are appearing for the State.

ple issued a denial of this story on Wednesday of last week. So far as known they are not coercing their employees.

Local issues are having their effect on the campaign. There is a liquor question in New Jersey politics. Every state in the Union heard a little more than a month ago of the proclamation issued by Governor Fort to the authorities of Atlantic City, in which he threatened to call out the troops to prevent the sale of liquor at the great resort on Sundays. At Taft by threatening to close down if Bryan were elected. The slogan people City and county have been robbed republicans. Owing to this ex-cess problem the county will give a greatly reduced republican plurality. This is also true of Cape May county, which has somewhere resorts likewise affected by the closed Sunday policy of the republicans. All of the larger cities have a similar ex-cess problem, a fight for an "open" Sunday or for a "partly open" Sunday. While this will drive many of the so-called liberal element to the democratic ticket it will keep the church forces on the side of the republicans. The church forces are not in the majority in the larger cities of northern New Jersey, that is, those who side with the church in politics are not.

There is no great national issue in New Jersey. The labor men are not disposed to follow Clompers. The people as a whole are only curious about the proposal of Bryan to guarantee bank deposits. They are satisfied with the tariff promises of Taft, because New Jersey is pre-eminently an industrial state. They haven't time to listen to anti-imperialism. They are for a larger navy, because they like to sailing the flag.

EDNA S. DRAPER, NOMINATED BY THE REPUBLICANS FOR GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS—HIS ELECTION IS GENERALLY CONCEDED BY THE OPPOSITION.

When Summer Draper is a typical Massachusetts product. He now resides in the home of his birth, Hopkinton, Mass. He has just passed the half century mark in life, and is full of strength and vigor. This is not Mr. Draper's first appearance in public life, for he is at present lieutenant governor of Massachusetts, and for many years has been connected with the political welfare of the republic can party in his home state. He has received many honors, elective and appointive, and is one of the most popular leaders to be found anywhere. Mr. Draper is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Immediately after graduation he went to work in the machine shops and cotton mills, and was at last admitted to the firm of George Draper & Sons, manufacturers. During the strenuous free silver campaign Mr. Draper was a delegate to the national republican convention, and was one of the most influential members of that memorable body, and assisted in securing the "gold standard" resolution.

At the present time Mr. Draper is comparatively wealthy, and has entered politics both for the pleasure it will give him and for the sake of the community. He is a director of the Boston & Albany railroad, and numerous banks and cotton companies. During the Spanish-American war he made a name for himself by raising $200,000 for a hospital ship, which was named "The Bay State," and which was of much assistance during the war. He was republican presidential elector in the Eleventh Massachusetts district in 1906.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA FOOTBALL PROSPECTS.

"OUR FOUR YEAR QUEENS."

MARTHA (DANDRIDGE) WASHINGTON.

Many a sweet girl dreams of being the "first lady" of America. To the uninitiated the pleasures of being mistress of the White House are very appealing, but with these pleasures come duties which take away the novelty of the situation and reduce it to a strenuous life, second only to that of the president himself.

Martha Washington stepped into the social position which came with her husband's election as naturally as any lady could. As a Virginia girl, Martha Dandridge, and as the young wife of Colonel Curtis she had seen little of hardship, protected as she was by wealth and tradition; and she came to her position a sturdy, kind and pious lady, whose thoughts and ambitions all in the fulfillment of her social and domestic duties. She grew to be very much like Washington in manner, even in voice, and her mind moulded itself to his.

When Lady Washington took her position and her courteous title to the republican court it was at 3 Franklin Square, New York. Her journey from Virginia to the capital was made in royal progress, with bells and cannon. At Elizabeth, N. J., her husband joined her, and they crossed the Hudson in a stately barge manned by 13 master pilots, all in white. She took up her rule courteously, though with a sigh for the quiet life to which she had previously looked forward. The etiquette of the new court was formal, moulded somewhat on European lines. Mrs. Washington and her husband drove in a cream colored coach with six horses. Their horses were stately with rigorous rules of dress, and if the coach had not the grace to go before half past ten it was quietly and graciously dismissed. Mrs. Washington sat on these occasions and the guests were arranged in a circle around which the president passed, greeting each one, but not shaking hands. With all this public ceremony a very simple, thrifty domestic life went on in the president's home. All the clothes, even to the presidential inauguration suit, were worn and made in the house, and two of Mrs. Washington's gowns were described as cotton striped with silk, the silk stripes being woven from the ravelings of brown silk stockings and old crimson chair cover.

Mrs. Washington inspected her household daily, giving out stores and visiting dairy and cellar dressed in a white dainty gown, which, we are told, was kept spotless for a week, to be succeeded by the dainty that had been worn at dinner the week before. Two years later, when Philadelphia became the capital, President Washington personally superintended the laborious moving. Mrs. Washington spoke of the eight years of her husband's private life as "lost years." And they were undoubtedly lost to her, but no one gave them up more gracefully than the much loved wife who realized the value her husband was to his country in establishing a new world power on a practical basis.

EARL'S COURT, LONDON, S.W. THE PRINCE OF WALES LOOKING OVER AMERICAN EXHIBIT ALREADY PLACED—JOHN W. RYCKMAN, COMMISSIONER WHO IS AT THE HEAD OF THE AMERICAN EXHIBITION IN LONDON.

THE GOLDEN WEST AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES EXHIBITION AT EARL'S COURT, LONDON.

London, Eng.—One of the greatest exhibitions to be held in Great Britain next year will be the "Golden West and American Industries Exhibition" at Earl's Court, London. The object of this exhibition is to bring into closer relationship the commerce of the two greatest nations in the world.

The idea of holding an American exhibition in London is largely due to the enterprise of J. W. Ryckman, who is well known as a newspaper and magazine writer in both countries. Mr. Ryckman has been interested in the organization and management of several of the largest exhibitions held in this country.

For this American exposition next year a distinguished committee has been organized headed by the lord mayor of London. Representatives have been appointed to visit the leading cities and all manufacturing districts of this country. Temporary headquarters of the commission have been established at the American Broadway and Seventy-third Street, New York. Plans have been completed for carrying out the exhibition on an elaborate scale and a large fund has been provided for the purpose.

The mayors of 50 cities have been invited to appoint local committees to take the matter up in their respective communities. The governors of all the western states have been asked to lay the subject of the exhibition before their chambers of commerce and other commercial bodies with favorable recommendations. Manufacturers' associations have been requested to participate in the exhibition through their members. Encouraging responses are being received from these various resources, indicating much interest in the event.

The exhibition will typify the great development of the states of the gold-en west since the discovery of gold in California in 1849. It will also commemorate the bicentennial of the completion of the first Atlantic cable.

With an American exhibition next year, London will enjoy an unusual invasion from the United States and England will see such evidence of industrial and commercial progress as she never dreamed of. The English people believe that Americans have a special fondness for exhibitions and are sure to throw a good deal of energy, enterprise and money into any one they are interested in and boom it in true American fashion.

One great advantage of Earl's Court is its location in the center of the dense population of London. It is estimated that 5,000,000 people a week can reach Earl's Court at a nominal price from any section of the great city by quick transit lines such as underground, tramways, buses and electric cars.

The business carried on between the United States and the United Kingdom comprises one-fifth of the commerce of the world and is constantly increasing. This enormous fact will be made clear and its significance emphasized in this exhibition of American industries. It will bring together all the present day achievements of science, invention, handicrafts and trades in the United States.

This exhibition will illustrate in the most impressive way the rapid progress of the United States, to the highest plane of influence in the applied arts, industries and commerce of the world. For this purpose the entire available space in the buildings and grounds of Earl's Court has been set

NIGHT-RIDER VICTIM SUES.

Kentuckian Asks $100,000 Damages from Alleged Conspirators.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—A suit for $100,000 damages which was filed in the United States circuit court for the sixth circuit at Louisville Tuesday promises to become an important factor in the night-riding situation in Kentucky and Tennessee.

The plaintiff, Henry Bennett, on the morning of the 4th of last February, was set upon and terribly beaten with clubs and thorned switches, and, as he claims, maimed and badly injured by a band of night riders. At the same time his storehouse and tobacco factory and other large and valuable buildings were destroyed by the night riders. Mr. Bennett ever since this time has been receiving letters threatening that he would be killed by night riders. In the suit filed, he is proceeding not only against the actual persons who were present at the time of the destruction of his property and injury to himself, but against a large number of other persons, many of whom are counted among the most prominent and prosperous citizens of the western part of the state, alleging that they were members of a criminal conspiracy known as the "Night Riders" organization, or "Silent Brigade," and that they participated in the meetings which were held throughout many counties.

Great Loss Due to Bird Killing.

New York, Oct. 28.—William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, declared at the annual meeting of the association in the American Museum of Natural History Tuesday that Americans were robbing posterity and permitting an annual crop loss of $80,000,000, due to destruction of insect-eating birds. He called for a fund to fight the commercial bird killers in every state legislature.

Liner Disabled in a Gale.

New York, Oct. 28.—The 308 passengers who arrived Tuesday on the steamer Purissima from Glasgow spent 12 anxious hours at sea last Wednesday, while the vessel floundered helplessly, the sport of a 90-mile gale. The misadventure was due to an accident in the engine room, a cross-head having slipped out of place, necessitating an abrupt silencing of the machinery.

Dryers Win Thren Ohio Counties.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Temperance forces won three county option elections Tuesday, as follows: Green county, dry by 750, 27 saloons; Williams county, dry by 1,726, 19 saloons; Trumbull county, dry by 309, 72 saloons.

You'll Be Pleased With Our Fur Values

If you want to see the prettiest lot of furs you have ever had the pleasure of laying your eyes on—just visit our Fur Section at the present time.

We made up our minds that there wouldn't be any assortment in town that would touch ours this season—and were determined that our values would be superior to any offered. The effort was well worth while—for our sales this season have made a record mark. Just to illustrate our value giving, this season, we quote the following specials:

The Black Pony Skins come in 24 and 26 inch lengths, as well as the natural Pony Skins, in blended shades of brown and tan. The Nerseal Coats in both plain and Jap mink trimmed are here in good assortment. The illustration in the center shows one of the popular styles.

The animal shaped Rugs, or Muffs, so popular this season, are shown here in good assortment. The muffs are made of full sized skins, head and tails, with pocket for muff, while the rug ends can be arranged in different ways.

Scarfs and Muffs in Jap mink. We have an almost endless variety of these, as well as in the genuine mink sets and the black mink which is so scarce this year.

Blue Fox Sets. These colors are very hard to get as the dyes do not always take well in the soft blue shades which are so much desired and worn so well with suits. At $20 we have a full line of sets, muffs and throws to match.

Our furs are all bought early and inspected after they come in and we know that they are reliable in every way.

In the lower priced furs we can suit almost every taste.

The showing of River Mink Muffs and Scarfs is particularly attractive. Scarfs can be purchased as low as $1.25 and up to $5.00, while Muffs run from $3.50 to $8.00.

The Coats range in price from $55 to $80 in the best grades, and in the less expensive from $35 to $70.

We are showing the popular brown Marmot Fur Coats, a soft, pliable fur, very durable, especially nice for dress occasions, for riding and autoing. Lengths 36, 42 and 48 inches. It's a fur that is becoming very popular.

Our River Mink Fur Coats, both dark and light blended, are especially good values. They come in 24, 26 and 40 inch lengths.

The fitting of these garments is excellent. We have handled them for a long time and have had excellent satisfaction.

We have a number of Black Astrachan Coats, excellent fur, tightly curled and silky. This year we also show them in the larger sizes up to 44 and 46.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Presented in Simplified Form for the Consideration of Wisconsin Voters

Prior to Election Day.

Art. 5. Allowing the governor six days instead of three in which to approve acts passed by the legislature.

Art. 6. Permitting the state to appropriate money for the construction or improvement of public highways.

Art. 7. Providing that none but a fully naturalized citizen of the United States may vote after December 1,

1912. Now a new-comer votes after a residence of one year, and a mere declaration of his "intention to become a citizen."

Art. 8. Enabling the legislature to impose taxes on incomes.

Art. 9. Raising the minimum school age to six years from four.

Art. 10. Abolishing the state census.

Uncle Sam's is enough.

Art. 11. Authorizing the legislature to make appropriations for the pur-

will vote for the Taft ticket and properity.

Here in Wisconsin great play has been made upon a possible democratic victory, but Chairman Edmunds of the republican committee stated over the telephone this morning that Taft's victory in Wisconsin was assured by a plurality of nearly a hundred thousand. This is comforting news to the republicans and disheartening to the democratic brethren who have based their hopes upon a house built on the shifting sands. In order to make

Mr. Edmunds' words truth it is up to every republican voter in the state to vote and vote right. It is necessary to cast your ballot for the republican nominees without scratching the ticket. In Rock county and right here in Janesville a republican vote will offset a democratic one in some other part of the state.

It is not a question of the state-going for Taft alone that bothers the campaign managers, but the election of a strong republican legislature.

Janesville has a candidate for the legislature that deserves support and every voter of the republican faith and those who believe and want a good able representative in the assembly from Janesville and the second assembly district should vote for Grant

U. Fisher.

Talk is rife, started by men with personal grievances, favoring the candidacy of his opponent. Between the two men the republicans have placed in nomination a man who will do honor to the office he seeks. A comparison of their records should convince the voter that Mr. Fisher is the man for the office and will do honor to the voters who elect him.

The days of differences over factional questions in the republican party are passed. The party is again united and a solid republican vote should send Mr. Fisher to the assembly with a whopping big majority.

His vote should equal that of Taft,

of Davidson, of the whole republican ticket from top to bottom.

A republican legislature is necessary to carry on the questions now at issue before the people. With Senator Whitte heading the county delegation, L. C. Whitte from the first district, Grant U. Fisher from the second and Simon Smith from the third, Rock county can take the rank as a solid republican county with four able men to represent it.

Next Tuesday is election day. The voter should consider carefully all sides of the question before voting for any other list of candidates than those on the republican ticket and should vote the ticket straight, from top to bottom. This does not apply only to the dyed-in-the-wool republicans, but to democrats and those of other political faiths who want good government ably handled by good men whose worth is unquestioned.

CONCEDE ELECTION

Newspapers voice public sentiment as well as would it. All over the country the interest in the coming election has been centered upon the presidential vote and many papers have resorted to the straw ballot system to obtain the opinions of the voters. They have been republican and democratic papers who have done this and it is gratifying to read that the unanimous opinion favors Taft's election. Among the representative papers who make this pleasing statement are the Chicago Tribune, republican; the New York Herald, democratic; New York World, democratic;

and Cincinnati Enquirer, democratic.

These papers made a careful canvass of the situation and while their totals differ, the differences are slight and all favor Judge Taft.

GOOD ROADS

The voter should be sure and vote

for the constitutional amendment relative to good roads. It is an important one for both the resident of the city and of the rural districts. Good roads mean much to any community.

The ancient Romans saw their necessity and built them wherever their

SHORT CUTS TO SUCCESS.

Master Harry Buchler, aged fifteen, ran away from his home at Cleveland. He landed in Chicago, seeking his fortune.

And this is the way he managed his journey westward:

"I had $7 in the Pearl Street bank," said Harry. "I drew it out. But instead of buying a regular ticket to Chicago I made a bargain with the

"brakey" for $250, and he sent me through."

Arriving in a strange city, he applied to a concern for work. He was asked his age and, perceiving no virtue in evasion, told the truth, whereupon he was refused employment. But at the next place of application he volunteered the information that he was sixteen—and got the job.

When this boy grows to manhood he need only follow his early devices to become a successful promoter of special interests. As head of a big corporation he will be able to swap good money to some political "brakey" who will send through the city council or the state assembly the needed franchises, and that without the delay or formality of the regular procedure.

The boy will get on.

He has the nerve and the initiative and the fertility of mental resources which have distinguished so many of our captains of industry in their successful manipulation of high finance.

Besides—

The boy learned another thing—in his first lesson in "practical business."

When asked his age he told the truth

—only once. He found it did not pay to be too truthful. He learned the world wisdom of evasion and prevarication.

Harry Buchler saw that if he was to arrive anywhere in the commercial world he must not be hampered by the baggage of too much conscientious scruple. He therefore dispensed with that superfluous baggage.

Surely the boy will get on in matterial things. In his transportation to success station he will be able to get along without the "regular ticket." He will arrange with the "brakey."

The boy is smart enough to "steal

according to law"—and keep out of the penitentiary.

What of his morals?

Dish!

What connection is there between high finance and ethics?

TOOK ME AT MY WORD

I said recently in my ad, "Come in and have a friendly chat with me about your teeth."

You will be under no obligations to have work done if you don't wish to. A lady took me at my word, and after I had examined her teeth, and stated what I would charge to put her teeth in perfect order, she said, "You may do the work."

Upon paying her bill, she stated that I had saved her just $11.00 in good money.

That's the way it goes, and I am not slighting my work either. I think I do just as good work as any dentist, and furthermore, I know I do, by almost daily comparison with the work of others as shown to me.

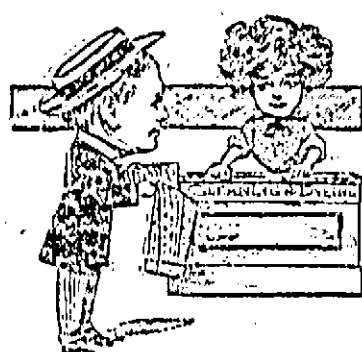

I simply make my fees moderate, so that everybody can afford to have their teeth saved.

Let me tell you personally about it.

CLOSE CAMPAIGN WITH BIG RALLY

REPUBLICANS PLAN FOR GATHERINGS FOR MONDAY NEXT.

AT EDGERTON AND BELOIT

Spellbinders Busy in the Country Districts All This Week—Evansville Rally Thursday.

At Edgerton and Beloit next Monday evening the republican campaign in Rock county will close with a big rally. At Edgerton all the candidates will be present and John L. Fisher and William H. Dougherty are to be the orators. At Beloit a torchlight parade by the Taff-Sherman Club completes the campaign.

BURY DAVE

These are busy days for the campaign orators. Reports from all parts of the county show that the work of the spellbinders has been doing its work. Battles have been held in many sections and before election day every town will have had one or more republican meetings. Standards carrying John Fisher and William Dougherty spoke at Emerald Grove.

Good Meetings

Dr. D. H. Clark presided over this meeting, which was most enthusiastic, and ended with a speech by Fisher and Dougherty. Grant V. Fisher, candidate for the assembly from the second district, gave a short address. On the same evening A. M. Fisher and Charles Henningsway spoke at Magnolia to an audience that filled the hall, many being forced to stand up. L. C. Whitsett of Edgerton republican candidate from the first assembly district also gave a short talk.

Last Night's Gatherings

Last evening John L. Fisher and William H. Dougherty spoke at Stuart hall in Fulton. Both Mr. Fisher and Mr. Dougherty are talking on the lines of the national campaign and places clearly before the voters the two platforms. Mr. Dougherty gave into detail on the bank guarantee law and explains its fallacies in an able manner.

At Milton

The republican rally last evening was a signal success. Village hall was filled to overflowing, many standing, an evidence that the voters are taking a lively interest in the campaign. Prior to the address the first men's band rendered a concert program and the college male quartet sang two campaign songs that caught the audience. The speaker of the evening, City Attorney Manson of Milwaukee, was introduced by L. W. Clark, who presided. Mr. Manson made the tariff question the leading feature of his address and it received a careful hearing. He urged the voters to cast their ballots for Taff, the man who does things, rather than for promulgatory note Bryan, whose record is that of a talking machine.

Tonight's Meetings

This evening John L. Fisher, W. H. Dougherty, Dr. D. H. Clark and Grant Fisher go to Johnson Center and A. M. Fisher and Chas. Henningsway to Center, where they speak in the town hall. This makes three republican rallies in the county tonight and covers a diversified territory. Mr. Whitsett accompanied Mr. A. M. Fisher and Chas. Henningsway to the Center meeting.

Thursday Evening. There is to be a big rally at Africa. John L. Fisher and W. H. Dougherty will be the speakers of the evening but all the other candidates will be present and an address from each can be expected. The meetings thus far have been well attended and it is expected that a large audience will greet the speakers at Africa.

In Evansville

On Thursday evening Prof. A. H. Shultz will speak on the campaign issues in the Angers Opera House in Evansville. This is the largest meeting thus far scheduled for Evansville and it is expected that Prof. Shultz will be greeted by a cheering crowd. Evansville is much alive to the situation and is an enthusiastic political town so that the address will be welcomed.

Friday and Saturday

On Friday T. D. Woolsey and J. L. Fisher appear at the hall in Shoreland for an address and on Saturday Fisher and Dougherty of Beloit, close the week's work at Footville, where a large audience of interested voters will be sure to meet them and wind up their speaking campaign in a fitting manner. Henry Allan Cooper speaks at Clinton on Friday evening and will have a large audience from all parts of the county.

Beloit's Rally

On Monday evening Beloit republicans plan to close their campaign with a torch and a show of torches. The Taff-Sherman marching club expect a thousand members in line and have arranged for torches for others who desire to march. The march begins at seven thirty and is of the old torch light parade variety that made the Garfield-Hancock, of 1880 campaign, famous.

Monahan to Speak

Following the parade James Monahan is to speak at the Wilson Opera house and the marching club will act as his escort from the hotel to the theatre. The plans thus far made show that Beloit is to have the largest demonstration of its campaign and much interest is being evidenced.

ARE BUILDING Y ON S. FRANKLIN STREET

Interurban Railway Put in Track to Handle Freight Cars at Depot.

The Rockford, Beloit and Janesville interurban railway company are building a "Y" at their freight depot on South Franklin street. This is being done in order that the express car may not have to back up in going to Beloit from here. The use of the loop has been forbidden for the purpose of carrying express and freight and cars have to back to Beloit before it can be turned around. When the new track is in, the car can come in on the present siding at the freight depot, back up from there in the new track to the main track and then go to Beloit, thus saving the trouble of backing up and turning around there.

BULGARIAN MILITARY SCHOOL IN SOFIA.

While England, Germany and the United States have been increasing their naval forces, the diminutive country of Bulgaria has been quietly but energetically perfecting her army. Until today she has one of the best equipped and most thoroughly trained military forces in the world. Among other factors which have conspired to some day free themselves from Turkish rule, should Bulgaria ever meet in open conflict, Bulgaria's thoroughly trained and educated soldiers will have an immense advantage over the Turks, who, through years of oppression, have scarcely bettered their condition.

Wear Furs Continually.

Throughout the cold latitudes of China during the winter the Chinese of all classes wear fur, wool or half-lined garments. Even the coolies have their sheep or goat skins, and people of the middle and official classes have many sets of garments lined with the richest furs. Their houses are rarely heated to a comfortable temperature, and in consequence they wear their furs both indoors and out.

The Time.

Once in awhile a woman begins to think that her husband really is good for something. But only once in awhile—the occasional times that he gets a raise in salary.

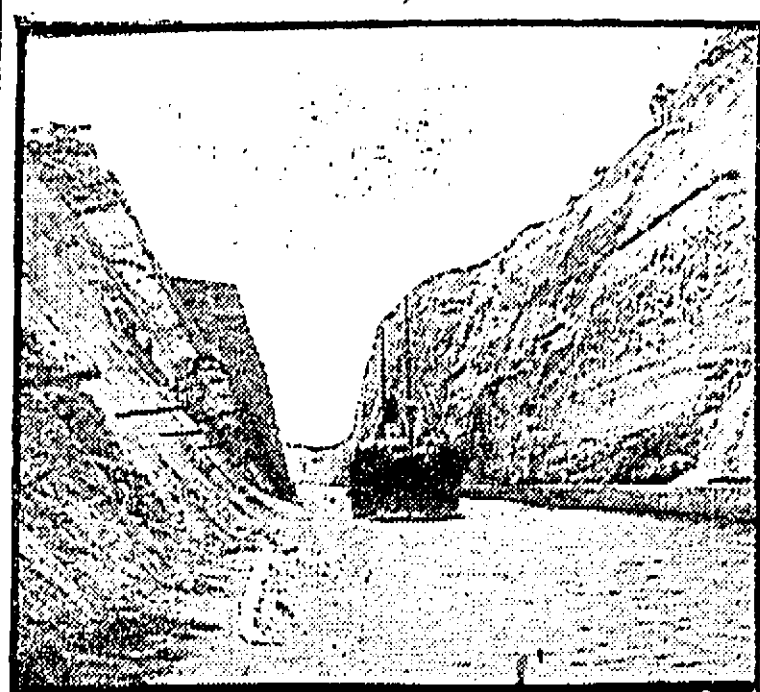

Awful to Contemplate.

It is stated as a truth that men become what they eat. Granted the fact, what would be the effect on Wall Street if the sale of lamb as an article of food were to be prohibited by law?

Keeping Up Population.

Mother of 23 living children, accompanied by 11 of them and five grandchildren, has just arrived from the Isle of Wight to spend the rest of her days with her husband and most of her other children in the United States. Let a few more such immigrants come to our shores and race suicide will cease to be a matter of concern to us. —New York Herald.

CANAL SOLD AT PRIVATE AUCTION.

The canal of Corinth (Greece) will be sold at public auction. The isthmus was pierced at a period of enthusiasm over the successful work of M. De Lesseps at Suez, but the canal has never paid and the shareholders have never received the smallest dividend. It is generally assumed that the National Bank of Greece will be the highest bidder. Foreign vessels invariably refused to make use of the canal, claiming the high passage fees were not justified by the small saving of time—barely a day. Furthermore, the passage is dangerous owing to the narrowness of the canal.

BRYAN ENDS HIS WHIRLWIND TOUR

TALKS DAY AND NIGHT IN AND ABOUT GREATER NEW YORK.

RUSHES IN AUTOMOBILE

He Warns Workmen Against His Opponent—National League of College Democratic Clubs Is Formed.

New York, Oct. 28.—Winding up his remarkable campaign in and about Greater New York, William Jennings Bryan was whirled 115 miles by automobile in Manhattan and Brooklyn during the day and night Tuesday, and made eight speeches between the hours of six and 12 o'clock.

In New York he was accompanied by Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy. Arriving at Brooklyn bridge, he was met by Senator Patrick H. McCarron, the Democratic leader of Kings county. Gov. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler's campaign for governor coincided with Mr. Bryan's itinerary, both in Manhattan and Brooklyn and while he in one place was pleading for loyal support of the national ticket, Mr. Bryan at another was urging votes for the state candidates from governor down, and for the Democratic nominees for congress.

Mr. Bryan made 18 speeches during the long and tiring day and every where he went—plowing at times through mud and rain in a rush to keep his many engagements—he was greeted by some of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences of his country-wide tour.

Begin with a Night Speech.

The Democratic candidate's eventful day began at three a. m., when he addressed the night workers from the steps of the city hall at the most unique political meeting ever held in a presidential campaign. Then followed a Broadway meeting at ten o'clock and a forenoon trip to Brooklyn to address an audience of laboring men in Wallabout Market square. From Brooklyn Mr. Bryan hurried across to Long Island City, then to Jersey City, where three speeches ended the New Jersey campaign.

Back in New York again Mr. Bryan was the guest of the College Men's Democratic club, and then with Mr. Murphy was hurried uptown for two Harlem meetings. Six meetings in Brooklyn—the principal one at Clermont avenue rink—brought the day's work to a close. Although he had but two hours' sleep out of 48, Mr. Bryan spoke with all his characteristic vigor and good humor.

Call Taft Labor's Enemy.

In all of his speeches Mr. Bryan warned the workmen against traitors among them. He asserted that every laboring man who voted the Republican ticket would vote to repudiate the things that labor demanded in the Denver platform. He held up Mr. Taft as the enemy of labor and assailed him and President Roosevelt at every opportunity. Mr. Bryan's references to the guarantee of bank deposits brought shouts of approval at all of his meetings.

Mr. Bryan left Wednesday morning at 9:40 over the New York Central for Schenectady, Albany and Troy.

Democrats in Colleges Organize.

Representing the Democrats in the universities and colleges throughout the United States, graduates and undergraduates gathered at the Hoffman house Tuesday and perfected the organization of the National League of College Men's Democratic clubs, and incidentally listened to a 15-minute address by Mr. Bryan.

Among the Institutions Represented were:

Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Nebraska, George Washington, Georgetown, Columbia, Brown, Syracuse, Williams and Notre Dame.

KAISER ENGLAND'S FRIEND.

He Says British Suspensions Sorely Try His Patience.

London, Oct. 28.—The Daily Telegraph publishes an interview given to an unofficial representative Englishman by Emperor William, who, in warmly asserting his strong friendship for England and complaining of the suspicions entertained by Englishmen of his attitude as sorely trying to his patience, declared that he had given many proofs of the sincerity of his feelings, even when a majority of the German people had been hostile towards Great Britain.

As an instance of this, he said, it was his refusal to receive the German delegates during the South African war which put an end to their triumphal tour of Europe.

Many Die at Oil Well Fire.

New Orleans, Oct. 28.—Deadly fumes from Mexico's great oil well fire 60 miles from Tampico, have killed more than a score of workmen during the past few days, completely blackened the white paint on the side of ships, endangered commerce and caused thousands of dollars' damage to ranches and other neighboring interests, according to Capt. Michael Hendrichsen of the steamship City of Mexico, which has reached New Orleans.

Killed by Gas from Stove.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 28.—David H. Morrissey is dead and his wife is dying of asphyxiation caused by coal gas escaping from the stove in their sleeping department.

Deeds Alone Count.

TALKS TO WORKERS IN EMPIRE STATE

TAPT IN THE MANUFACTURING CITIES ON THE HUDSON.

BIG CROWDS DESPITE RAIN

Enthusiastic Meetings at Poughkeepsie, Hudson and Elsewhere—Plans for the Illumination of Fifth Avenue.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The industries of the cities and towns which line the banks of the picturesque Hudson from Greater New York to Troy were made the text for the speeches of William H. Taft Tuesday to the people of those cities and towns.

Yonkers smiled on the big form of the Ohioan through a heavy shower. He talked at length to as many as could get into the largest theater, and then addressed those who had stood waiting in the rain, whose number was even greater.

Mr. Bryan spoke in Yonkers Monday, and, saying he understood his distinguished opponent had charged that the Republican party had done nothing for labor, Mr. Taft first asserted that the policies of the Republican party had been chiefly devoted to the interests of labor, and then pointed out that the protective policy made possible the sugar refining industry, the chief enterprise of the city.

Car-End Speeches in Rain.

Tarrytown, Peekskill and Fishkill Landing listened in the rain to short speeches delivered by the candidate from the rear of his car. The dampness did not seem to dull the ardor of the citizens. When the Taft special reached Poughkeepsie at one o'clock the rain had just ceased and the sun came out brightly. He was driven up town to the Collingwood opera house, which was crowded to the very doors.

A class of girls from Vassar college tried to "get" Judge Taft's speech in shorthand, and an enthusiast in the gallery attracted brief attention by shouting: "He surely wears 'the smile that won't come off.'"

"It will still be there next Tuesday," rejoined Judge Taft, and in his hope the audience seemed to cheer.

Another brief speech was made at Hudson, after which the special ran to Schenectady, where nearly three hours were occupied by the candidate in the delivery of three speeches, all of them predominant with the labor issues. The employees of the American Locomotive Works were spoken to first, and received the candidate with much show of enthusiasm.

Fifth Avenue Will Blaze.

New York, Oct. 28.—Regardless of atmospheric conditions, the Republican county organization has planned to make Fifth avenue outside Broadway Wednesday night. Buildings from Fifty-ninth street to Fifteenth street will be electrically lighted. The Union and Union League clubs will be illuminated and flash-lights from skyscrapers and steeples will help. Interspersed in the marching clubs from 35 assembly districts will be 50 bands of music.

Some slight changes have been made in the list of speakers at Madison Square Garden. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts has been substituted for Senator Smith of Michigan, who is not able to be here. Two or more other orators will fill in the time until the arrival of Gov. Hughes, who will be followed by Mr. Taft.

CURTIS IS TO TELL ALL.

Co-Defendant with Morse Takes Stand in Own Defense.

New York, Oct. 28.—The expected split between Charles W. Morse, bank promoter, financier and "tea trust" organizer, and Alfred H. Curtis, president of the National Bank of North America, both of whom are under indictments charging them jointly with violation of the national banking laws, came Tuesday with the swearing in of Curtis as the first witness for his own defense in the trial before Judge Hough in the United States court here.

Before the beginning of Mr. Curtis' examination the court had heard arguments on behalf of both defendants on motions to dismiss the indictments, and had yielded on a few minor points, dismissing the counts charging conspiracy and misappropriation in one specific instance, but maintaining 55 counts charging over-certification, making of false reports, misapplication and the use of funds of depositors for speculative purposes. Curtis' attorney said the witness would tell everything.

Resigns as Coroner to Fill Pulpit.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 28.—Dr. C. S. Mack, coroner of Laporte county, Tuesday announced his resignation from that office and his retirement from the practice of medicine in order to enter the ministry. Dr. Mack, who formerly held the chair of materia medica and therapeutics at the University of Michigan, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Swedish-borghian church at Toledo, O.

Ball for Tschakovsky Arrives.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—The fund subscribed in England to cover the bail demanded by the Russian government for the release of Nicholas Tschakovsky finally arrived here Tuesday, after exasperating delays, but at too late an hour to permit of the liberation of the revolutionist before Wednesday.

AT THE PLAY HOUSES

Alma Dupree in "The Little Girl Who Couldn't Wake Up" in "The Road to Yesterday," another "Peter Pan" sort of fantasy that makes you want to believe in fairies and dreams and things, which comes to the Myers theatre Saturday, Nov. 7. The play came direct from its brilliant run of almost a year at the Lyric theatre, New York, with the entire original cast and production. The piece is one of the real genuine novelties of the season.

One of the most interesting events of the theatrical season is announced for Thursday, Oct. 29, at the Myers theatre in 50th Street. Powers' big production of "Sapho," Sapho needs no recommendation to those who have seen and profited by its wholesome and natural story. It teaches the greatest moral lesson the stage has ever known. Adapted to the Sapho needs magnificent scenery, and the most expensive costumes ever seen on the stage. As an added feature attraction, the management offers the greatest of all sensational dances—The Velden of Salome.

The London Telegraph is quoted as follows with reference to the recent Balkan troubles and the treaty of Berlin:

"The hand that tore the venerable document was Prince Ferdinand's, but the voice that set it in motion was the voice of Baron von Achrenthal, Austria and Bulgaria now stand together as conspiring powers, which, for their own ends, have risked, and possibly broken the peace of Europe."

Fifth Avenue Will Blaze.

New York, Oct. 28.—Regardless of atmospheric conditions, the Republican county organization has planned to make Fifth avenue outside Broadway Wednesday night. Buildings from Fifty-ninth street to Fifteenth street will be electrically lighted. The Union and Union League clubs will be illuminated and flash-lights from skyscrapers and steeples will help. Interspersed in the marching clubs from 35 assembly districts will be 50 bands of music.

Some slight changes have been made in the list of speakers at Madison Square Garden. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts has been substituted for Senator Smith of Michigan, who is not able to be here. Two or more other orators will fill in the time until the arrival of Gov. Hughes, who will be followed by Mr. Taft.

CURTIS IS TO TELL ALL.

Co-Defendant with Morse Takes Stand in Own Defense.

New York, Oct. 28.—The expected split between Charles W. Morse, bank promoter, financier and "tea trust" organizer, and Alfred H. Curtis, president of the National Bank of North America, both of whom are under indictments charging them jointly with violation of the national banking laws, came Tuesday with the swearing in of Curtis as the first witness for his own defense in the trial before Judge Hough in the United States court here.

Before the beginning of Mr. Curtis' examination the court had heard arguments on behalf of both defendants on motions to dismiss the indictments, and had yielded on a few minor points, dismissing the counts charging conspiracy and misappropriation in one specific instance, but maintaining 55 counts charging over-certification, making of false reports, misapplication and the use of funds of depositors for speculative purposes. Curtis' attorney said the witness would tell everything.

Resigns as Coroner to Fill Pulpit.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 28.—Dr. C. S. Mack, coroner of Laporte county, Tuesday announced his resignation from that office and his retirement from the practice of medicine in order to enter the ministry. Dr. Mack, who formerly held the chair of materia medica and therapeutics at the University of Michigan, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Swedish-borghian church at Toledo, O.

Mrs. U. G. Miller Leading The Ladies in District 2

M. K. Hamblett, of Orfordville, is Making a Steady Climb Toward the Top and Must Be Considered a Contender For the Grand Prize.—David B. Griffin, the B. of R. T. Candidate, Says He Will Make Them Go Some.

Mrs. C. McDonald, Representing The Ben Hur, Is Showing Some Activity And With The Support From Her Organization To Which She Is Entitled She Should Make It Very Interesting For The Other Candidates. Mrs. Emma Malbon, The F. A. A. Candidate, Still Holding First In Her District. Some Very Heavy Voting May Be Expected Soon. This Week's Bonus Vote Is Attracting Considerable Attention And Those Who Wish To Win Are On The Hustle.

The New Bonus Offer

A certificate for 10,000 votes will be given with every $30.00 worth of business turned into the office by next Monday night at 10 P. M. This includes both "old" and "new" subscribers, and the certificate is given in addition to the regular votes issued on each subscription. All business previously turned in, and not checked off in one of the "club" offers will be included in this proposition. Get at least one of the certificates.

The special vote offer in vogue this week is attracting a great deal of attention and, of course, is bringing in a good many subscriptions. As the votes are issued a few of them are polled, but the larger portion are being held back as a reserve force.

This is opportunity time and those who do their best within the next few days will undoubtedly stand the best chance of winning.

Contest Gains Ground Rapidly.

The big contest is certainly gaining ground day by day and no one can anticipate what height this good natured tug-of-war will attain. Certain it is that 25 per cent of the people in the territory of the contest are directly interested in the outcome and before the end the other 5 per cent will be closely watching the outcome.

All Out to Win.

No one is losing hope and the contest is still to be won and the difference of a few thousand votes is nothing, as that means but a few yearly subscriptions and any candidate can close the chasm which now separates those in other positions than the first. Many people are willing to help the candidates and are only waiting to be asked. The first candidate to ask, of course, will be the one to receive the subscription and the votes so it is imperative that those who desire to enlarge their count get among the people and make their cause known. It certainly does not require any sacrifice in this contest except some of your time, but if you expect to win, you should stick to the campaign and put your best energies behind your effort to come out victor. The prizes are surely worth the little effort required and the time is comparatively short. Just show the people that you have the determination to succeed in anything you undertake and that you are out to win.

If you want subscription receipt books or if your friends want them let us know and we will forward them at once.

Remember this is Opportunity Time, and every candidate who is desirous of winning one of the 9 prizes should do their best during the coming week to secure votes. Those who are a little behind in the race can easily acquire first place during the coming week if a little extra effort is exerted. Read the conditions of this offer and then try to get every available subscription you can find.

"Really," said the stylish lady, enthusiastically, to her friend, "it is worth while to see the wonderful display of rhododendrons." "Is it?" replied her friend, languidly. "I like to look at the great big stately beauty, too; but it always smells so unpleasantly around the 'cages'."—London News.

STOMACH TROUBLE

AND INDIGESTION

Almost Instant Relief From This Is

Waiting For You at the Drug Store.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapysin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will disturb nothing you eat and overcome

a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent

box of Diapysin and take one teaspoonful after supper tonight. There will be no more heartburn, no belching

of undigested food mixed with bile, no stomach gas or heaviness, no nervous

feeling in the stomach, no nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison

your breath with nauseous odors.

Diapysin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent boxes contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or indigestion.

Gentlemen: I have just heard of a man who says he was a change and is going to vote for Bryan. If Bryan is elected he will get all the change

he wants. The man is a farmer and of course has farm produce to sell.

Corn has been selling at $1.35 a bushel, I ever knew it to sell at. Hogs bring

$5.00 a hundred; potatoes, 60¢ a bushel; 45¢; cranberry butter, 25¢; eggs,

25¢. Everything in the line of farm produce brings good prices—money abundant. All men at work—good wages. Everything one has to buy is at reasonable prices. And yet he wants to change. I wonder if he has forgotten that Grover Cleveland

in 1884 (Daniel Manning was his secretary of treasury) after the money was counted he had an available surplus of $20,000,000, but he had not enough to justify him in calling in the 3 per cent bonds, of which there were

$193,000,000 outstanding, that were due and payable at the pleasure of the secretary of the treasury. He did not call for one dollar's worth of bonds until after the holidays. Just before the holiday adjournment Senator Beck of Kentucky introduced a measure to compel the payment of the national bonds and if I remember right Manning made his first call during the holiday recess.

At the time Cleveland was elected they found $422,000,000 and when he resumed paying the national debt he had over $500,000,000 locked in the treasury. In ten months he had taken in over $50,000,000 above the ordinary expenditures. Result: A panic

no money in circulation and nothing doing. One could scarcely sell anything then. All should know how it was when Cleveland was elected the second time. As soon as it was known that he was elected and had a majority in both houses of congress business in all lines commenced to slacken and in a very short time little or nothing was doing. That was the worst four years I ever experienced
